DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant's election of the invention of Group I in the response to the restriction requirement filed on November 30, 2005 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Groups II, Claims 5-10 are further canceled in the aforementioned response.

Now, Claims 1-4 are pending.

Specification

2. Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

Claim Objections

3. Claim 2 is objected to because of the following informalities:

In Claim 2 (line 4), before "12", should there be -- or --?

In Claim 2 (line 5), should "alkyl" and "phenyl" be -- alkylene -- and -- phenylene --, respectively?

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Art Unit: 1712

5. Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In Claim 1 (line 4), it is not clear as to what "certain mechanical properties" refers to.

In Claim 2 (line 3), "typically" causes confusion because it is not clear as to what non-typical chemical formulae are.

In Claims 2 (line 6) and 3 (line 2), the Markush language is improper.

A broad range or limitation together with a narrow range or limitation that falls within the broad range or limitation (in the same claim) is considered indefinite, since the resulting claim does not clearly set forth the metes and bounds of the patent protection desired. Note the explanation given by the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences in Ex parte Wu, 10 USPQ2d 2031, 2033 (Bd. Pat. App. & Inter. 1989), as to where broad language is followed by "such as" and then narrow language. The Board stated that this can render a claim indefinite by raising a question or doubt as to whether the feature introduced by such language is (a) merely exemplary of the remainder of the claim, and therefore not required, or (b) a required feature of the claims. Note also, for example, the decisions of Ex parte Steigewald, 131 USPQ 74 (Bd. App. 1961); Ex parte Hall, 83 USPQ 38 (Bd.

Art Unit: 1712

App. 1948); and Ex parte Hasche, 86 USPQ 481 (Bd. App. 1949). In the present instance, Claim 2 recites the broad recitation “other derivatives having diamine group” (line 7), and the claim also recites “for example, reactive functional groups as -R1-N(-Ar-NH₂)₂,and the like” (lines 7-9) which is the narrower statement of the range/limitation.

In Claim 2 (line 8), it is not clear as to what “-Ar-“ refers to.

In Claims 2 (line 9) and 3 (last two lines), it is not clear as to what “and the like” refers to.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

7. Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Sevjdá (US 6 767 930).

Sevjda discloses a nanocomposite formed of modified polyhedral oligomeric silsesquioxane (POSS) and polyimide through covalent bonding. (col. 3, line 35 to col. 6, line 11 and Figures) Since Sevjdá's nanocomposite reads on that of Applicant', both should possess the same properties set forth in the present invention. In re Best, 195 USPQ 430 (CCPA 1977).
